description This is a test Grievance to calibrate how we are inserting text into our template grievance form. I need this to at least be a few lines. I guess ultimately the longer the better. So im just going to type out a few sentences that really dont matter or have any meaningful content. These are just words to fill a space. I dont know what I am doing. Im ready to go home but im also addicted to working on this project because i think it is really cool. I cant believe wjess said he didnt understand the point of this project. I feel like it speaks for itself. But he just didnt understand why or what it's for and that is crazy.....		staff involved Mark Bonner		DATE 2025-09-09 16:24
